NOTES FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

How did it get to be October already? It seems like we just had the Fuzzy Pony show (and if you missed that this year you won't want to miss its repeat in 2012!) and now we are talking about the awards banquet.

Along with the awards banquet remember that we also have elections coming up in November. All of the officer positions (President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer) are up for reelection and we have two board positions, or maybe three, that are up as well. If you are interested in being part of one of the best teams anywhere around and getting to do horse stuff with great people in your free time please consider joining us! We would appreciate it if you could let us know your plans prior to the November 7th meeting so we can get all of the ballots pulled together, but we will always accept write-ins as well.

We also plan to review the PRC budget at the awards banquet and give all of you a heads up for some of the projects we are looking at doing in 2012. We have some great stuff planned and can only do it because of all of our memberships, class entry fees, donations, and sponsorships. I am looking forward to sharing all of our plans with you - we are really excited!

Don't forget to plan your costume for our costume class on Oct 28th. There is no fee to enter the class and it will not be judged for PRC points, but we will have a judge available for folks who receive Paint Horse points. So the more people we can get in the class the better - even if you don't have a paint horse - here's your chance to support some fellow members! And you can pull back from being judged if you want to, but I can't wait to get pictures of all of you in costume - we had so many great entries last year!

See you all in a couple of weeks - happy riding!

Nicole

NEWS & NOTES

PRC COSTUME CLASS!

Don't forget - the October 28th class has a costume class as the first class of the evening. We love seeing what all of you come up with and are looking forward to the evening. This class is not judged for PRC points so it is just for fun, BUT we have some members who would like to get some Paint Horse points for the class - so the more people we can have the better, even if you aren't riding a paint horse - you don't have to be judged, but the more entries we have the better. Can we make this the biggest class of the evening? Free horse treats and candy to everyone who enters ☺

DON'T FORGET TO CHECK YOUR POINTS

Please take the time to read through the points standings and let us know if you see any errors. The data is entered exactly as you enter it on your form each week and so your horse may be in for one week under their registered name and the next week under their barn name or your name might be in differently for different weeks. Please check these and let us know if you see any errors, we want to make sure you all get the awards you deserve! But no changes can be accepted after November 1.

AWARDS BANQUET

We are lining up a great evening on November 12th for our awards. There will be a hog roast provided for $5/kids and $7/adults with advance tickets available at registration for a reduced price. We have the High Point awards, the Top 5, Top 10, all youth who participated in at least 5 shows, sportsmanship award, perfect attendance award, leadline awards, and even something for anyone who has volunteered at a show. You don't have to be present for your high point awards, but if you would like to pick up your volunteer awards you need to be present for those. We will be sending postcards to everyone who is scheduled to receive an award, so be watching your mail the next couple of weeks!

Cookbook & Calendar

Take a look in the clubhouse next time you are there. We are running our calendar contest where you can submit your own photos and vote with your dollars for your favorite entries. We have extended the calendar contest through the awards banquet so we will do the final voting in November and take calendar orders at that time.

We will also have PRC cookbooks with all of your member supplied recipes for sale at the awards banquet for $10 each - these will make great keepsakes or gifts...

Sportsmanship Award Nominees

There are a few people who have already been nominated for the sportsmanship award PRC will be presenting at the end of this year. Do you see someone who goes above and beyond or is an inspiration to others? Just fill out the cards on the entry table in the clubhouse and nominate them so they know they are appreciated. Even nominate someone a second time - the more entries the better!

Our entries so far:

Lori Windish - For bringing Ginger for all the kids to ride X2, (2) bringing in sponsorships and bringing kids from every state to come ride

Kierstyn Biedenharn - Has volunteered her time for fall and spring cleanup of grounds, has helped people with questions, has greeted people at check-in and friendly towards everyone

Nina Schenk - Always helping her friends and rooting them on & (2) for always helping others and being around when needed (3) she tells everyone "good job", helps others with their patterns and has made a lot of new friends AND she thanks those who volunteer

Brittany Danford - Being friendly to other riders and never giving up

Morgan Killion - always helping her cousins and friends with a big smile

Cortney Engle - always willing to help everyone, especially the kids

Laurie Miller - brought a member and her horse to the show

Megan Windish - helping all the kids with their leadline classes, (2) being a good positive role model and helping the younger kids

Brooke Parrish - for helping a first time PRC rider feel right at home
